Greetings,

We hope that you're doing well. In keeping with our focus on providing educational resources and support services to the prostate cancer community at no charge, below you'll find some of the latest Prostate Cancer News You Can Use. Article titles are listed followed by a link to the Us TOO web page that provides access to the full text of each article.

We're seeking to address the emotional toll that prostate cancer takes on patients, spouses and partners, family members and friends. Please CLICK HERE to complete a survey from Us TOO and CancerCare to provide data that will help guide the development of new educational materials and resources on anxiety and depression relative to prostate cancer. Responses are anonymous, your email address is not retained in connection to this survey, and it only takes about 10 minutes to complete.

My Prostate Cancer Roadmap website has been updated with new content from patients, caregivers and advocates in the section called, "Viewpoints from the Road." Resources includes a patient navigator, bill binder with tips to help stay on top of medical expenses, and advice on opening the dialogue for prostate cancer survivors and their caregivers to discuss living with advanced disease.

The ZERO Prostate Cancer Advocacy Summit in Washington, DC, is slated for February 27 to March 1, 2017. CLICK HERE for pre-registration information.

And Prostate Cancer International will be hosting a one-day Prostate Cancer Conference in Punta Gorda, FL, on March 4, 2017. CLICK HERE for more information and registration
