Dear Friends of Us TOO:

Throughout 2015, our initiatives in educational programs and resources, support services and fundraising all centered around the challenge to “Take action – get connected.” This mandate also served as the theme for a variety of anniversary activities acknowledging 25 years of Us TOO International providing free services to the prostate cancer community.

Consistent leadership posts on the Us TOO executive committee extended into 2015 with the continuation of Chairman Jim Rieder, Secretary Bill Seidel and Treasurer C. Todd Ahrens, along with newly elected Vice-Chairman Jerry Deans. President & CEO Tom Kirk also continued to serve on the executive committee and announced in December that he would be retiring on March 31, 2016, after 11 years at Us TOO. We extend our thanks and appreciation to Tom along with former Us TOO Vice-Chairman Jeff Mills, in addition to board members who retired after completing their terms at the close of 2014: Jerry Hardy, David Lubaroff, PhD, and Dexter C. Rumsey, III. We welcomed several newly elected Us TOO board members who began serving in January 2015: Peter Friend, Chad Little and Jim Schraidt. And we were pleased to have additional leadership consistency with the continuation of service from board members Fred Allen, Tom Cvikota, Jim Hammack, DDS, Keith Hoffman and Jim Naddeo. Thank you, gentlemen.

The Us TOO 25th Anniversary Educational Symposium and Gala Celebration Dinner was the centerpiece event of 2015. The two-day conference on June 19 and 20 was the ideal platform to share new advancements in prostate cancer treatments and improvements in side effect management through moderated panel discussions, presentations, and patient/caregiver Q&A sessions.

Beautiful weather and blue skies prevailed on Sunday, September 13, for the 11th Annual SEA Blue Chicago Prostate Cancer Walk & Run, co-presented by UroPartners and Us TOO. More than 1,100 people gathered in Lincoln Park to raise awareness and funds for the purpose of providing the prostate cancer community with Support, Education and Advocacy.

Us TOO hosted another series of three educational events in Atlanta, Philadelphia and Los Angeles. A Community Conversation on Prostate Cancer in each city provided prostate cancer education, PSA and DRE prostate health screenings, and lunch – all at no charge to attendees.

The volunteer-led network of Us TOO support groups continued to provide valuable service to the prostate cancer community on a grassroots level; and the Us TOO website proved to be an important destination for prostate cancer resources and information generating more than four million hits in 2015. We maintained a steady stream of educational content with monthly development and distribution of the Us TOO Hot SHEET newsletter, along with monthly email distribution of Prostate Cancer News You Can Use. And the Us TOO toll-free HelpLine provided callers with educational information in addition to the option of peer-to-peer connection with a survivor to discuss a shared experience of prostate cancer treatment or side effect management.

We ended 2015 with annual expenses exceeding revenue primarily due to the additional costs associated with the programming that surrounded the 25th anniversary of Us TOO International.

Working together we continued to make a difference in providing education and support services to encourage informed decisions at all phases of prostate cancer – from testing to active surveillance or treatment, and management of side effects to maximize quality of life. We encourage everyone to “Take action – get connected.”

We thank all of our corporate sponsors, individual donors, support group leaders, volunteers and event participants for their ongoing contributions of time, talent and treasure that power the implementation of the Us TOO mission. And on behalf of the Us TOO staff, Board of Directors, those we have helped in their battle with prostate cancer, and those we will help – Thank You!

Sincerely,

Jim Rieder

Educational Initiatives

Us TOO Website
Updated educational content was added to the Us TOO website (www.ustoo.org), which serves as a consistent and reliable resource for the prostate cancer community as evidenced by traffic to the site that generated nearly four million hits in 2015.

Community Conversation on Prostate Cancer
Us TOO continued hosting Community Conversations on Prostate Cancer sponsored by Bayer HealthCare. Three events in 2015 provided early prostate cancer detection and education with PSA and DRE prostate health screenings, educational sessions, sponsor introductions, and lunch – all at no charge to attendees.
- Decatur (Atlanta), GA on August 8
- Coatesville (Philadelphia), PA on November 14
- Los Angeles, CA on November 21

Hot SHEET
Us TOO continued to publish the monthly Hot SHEET newsletter, which highlights some of the latest advancements in prostate cancer diagnosis and treatment. Printed newsletters were mailed to subscribers and a free digital version of the Hot SHEET was distributed to the entire Us TOO data base each month. In recognition of the 25th anniversary of Us TOO, the masthead of the Hot SHEET was redesigned and launched with the June 2015 issue.

News You Can Use
Approximately two weeks after each monthly distribution of the Hot SHEET newsletter, Us TOO distributed Prostate Cancer News You Can Use to the entire Us TOO data base free of charge. It provided a compilation of some of the most relevant news articles selected by Us TOO from the RSS news feed.

Educational Emails
Prostate cancer educational information about research studies, clinical trials and conferences, in addition to advocacy and awareness initiatives, were highlighted in cover emails twice each month with the distribution of the Hot SHEET newsletter and Prostate Cancer News You Can Use. All electronic communication was also posted on social media through Facebook pages for Us TOO and SEA Blue and twitter feeds, along with blog posts on the Inspire prostate cancer online community hosted by Us TOO.
Educational Materials
Multiple prostate cancer educational brochures and books continued to be made available to the prostate cancer community. All materials were accessible digitally through PDF documents housed on the Us TOO website. In addition, Us TOO mailed and distributed thousands of printed pieces in response to hundreds of requests for the material, which was provided at no cost.

Infographic for Advanced Prostate Cancer
As visual reference to more clearly communicate some of the most relevant prostate cancer facts, Us TOO developed an infographic sponsored by Bayer.

Inspire Online Community
Us TOO continued to provide additional support services to the prostate cancer community through hosting the Inspire online prostate cancer communities (UsTOO.inspire.com) with 14 prostate cancer discussion groups specific to the following topics:

- Newly diagnosed
- Treatment options
- Active surveillance
- Managing side effects
- Exercise and nutrition
- Wives, family, friends and caregivers
- Prostate cancer and intimacy
- Screening and early detection
- Recurrence / advanced disease
- Clinical trials
- Advocacy
- Local support group leaders
- In Memoriam

Support Services
Us TOO support groups provide an invaluable forum for peer-to-peer interaction to exchange information and personal perspective specific to effectively navigating the prostate cancer journey. Each Us TOO support group functions independently and is led by local volunteer, which could be a prostate cancer survivor, caregiver or medical professional. Groups hold regular meetings for men living with prostate cancer and their families. In addition to emotional support, the meetings provide unbiased educational information related to prostate cancer treatment options for newly diagnosed men or those managing advancing disease, solutions for addressing side effects, and nutrition. Us TOO group meetings are free and open to the public. In 2015, Us TOO added new support groups in Cape May, NJ; Memphis, TN; The Villages, FL; Appleton, WI; and Nashville, TN.
Us TOO continued to provide additional support services to the prostate cancer community through hosting the Inspire online prostate cancer communities (UsTOO.inspire.com) with 13 prostate cancer discussion groups specific to the following topics:

In addition, the toll-free Us TOO Prostate Cancer HelpLine (1-800-808-7866) continued to provide answers for callers and offer the option of a peer-to-peer conversation with one of more than 50 volunteers -- survivors categorized by the treatment they received and/or the side effects that they’re managing.

Advocacy Initiatives

Patient Advocacy Summit
On February 7 and 8 in Rosemont, IL, Us TOO and NASPCC (National Alliance of State Prostate Cancer Coalition) co-presented “How the System Works and How to Work the System™,” a public policy advocacy train-the-trainer course developed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills needed to leverage opportunities to impact prostate cancer legislation.

Michael Siler, president and director of public policy advocacy and lobbying at Practical Strategic Solutions – Utah, and vice president of NASPCC, led this hands-on training event designed to legitimately influence legislative policy and appropriations decisions at all levels of government, and effectively engage public policy advocacy specific to prostate cancer initiatives. Twenty-two patient advocates from across the country attended the event.

Industry Advocacy Meetings
Us TOO staff, board members and volunteer representatives attended:

- American Urological Association (AUA) Conference
- America Society for Clinical Oncology (ASCO) Annual Meeting
- Genitourinary Cancers Symposium (ASCO-GU)
- National Health Council (NHC) Annual Health Leadership Conference
- National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship (NCCS) Policy Roundtable
- National Comprehensive Cancer Network (NCCN) Annual Conference
- Prostate Cancer Research Institute (PCRI) Conference
- ZERO Patient Advocacy Summit

Thanks in part to the advocacy efforts of the Us TOO network, Congress appropriated $80 million for the Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCRP) for FY15.

Us TOO also impacted research through ongoing involvement in the Department of Defense (DoD) Congressionally Directed Medical Research Program (CDMRP), and Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCRP). Many prostate cancer survivors in the Us TOO network have volunteered to serve as DoD consumer reviewers to help direct medical research for prostate cancer.
Awareness and Fundraising

11th Annual SEA Blue Chicago Prostate Cancer Walk & Run
SEA Blue is Chicago’s largest prostate cancer fund raising and awareness event. More than 1,000 people attended the SEA Blue Prostate Cancer Walk & Run on Sunday, September 13th in Chicago’s Lincoln Park. New initiatives in 2015 included official certification from the Chicago Area Runners Association (CARA) for the 5K race, an enhanced Family Fun Zone and festive walk opening ceremonies with confetti.

The First Annual SEA Blue Rochester Ribbon Walk in Rochester, NY
An enthusiastic crowd gathered in Genesee Valley Park for the First Annual SEA Blue Rochester Ribbon Walk on Sunday, September 20th. The family-focused event was organized by Us TOO Rochester Chapter Leader Patrick Fisher and featured a beautiful walk through the park, refreshments, and kids’ activities. Vital funds and local awareness were raised for Us TOO Rochester.

Larry Kaufman opened his home to host the “Special Evening Benefitting the Fight Against Prostate Cancer” fundraising event on October 8th in San Francisco. Donations generated through the event benefited the California Prostate Cancer Coalition and Us TOO.

We thank all sponsors, donors, volunteers, and participants.
In 2015, “SEA of Blue” lemonade stands were created to help promote the SEA Blue Chicago Prostate Cancer Walk & Run, and to bring prostate cancer awareness to local communities. Kids dressed up in blue and served blue lemonade to promote the SEA Blue tagline, “Blue is to prostate cancer as pink is to breast cancer.” Several stands were held throughout the Chicago area.
