

Greetings,

You might have seen the Prostate and Urological Health insert distributed last week with USA Today. Terri Likowski, Us TOO Program Director - Support Group Services and Ken Willmarth, Us TOO Support Group Leader - Modesto, CA, were featured in an article on the importance of prostate cancer support groups. Check it out at <http://bit.ly/2mMnJDa> and please feel free to post your comments or share your personal experiences with support groups.

Also of interest is the article "How a Comedian Goes About Changing the Prostate Cancer Conversation," an inspiring piece about comedian and author, Stevie D., and how he has dealt with the disease at <http://bit.ly/2mlqjVC>.

The full, online version of the Prostate and Urological Health insert, which features additional informative articles on prostate cancer, can be found at www.futureofpersonalhealth.com.

Please give us your feedback and pass along this email to anyone who might benefit from the information.

All the best,

 & The Us TOO Team
